Building and Garden Lots,

CONTIGUOUS to, and at a small distance from the city, to be sold at the coffee house in Second street, on Wednesday the 20th of March, at 6 o'clock in the evening, containing from about 1-4 of an acre to about 4 acres each. The small lots fronting on Vine and Callowhill streets, on the west side of Schuylkill Second street, and the large lots containing whole or half or quarter squares, some of them bounded on the west by Schuylkill and the upper ferry road including some fine quarry lots on Schuylkill: the whole containing about 140 acres, and formerly known by the name of Springsbury; bounded on the north by Francis street, extending from the Ridge road to Schuylkill, crossing the canal, on which several of the lots will give fronts.

The situation of many of the large lots is on high ground, commanding beautiful views of the Schuylkill, supposed to be sufficiently detached to escape any unfortunate disorder which may be prevalent in the city.—The terms will be made known at the time of the sale.

N. B. Maps of the lots are fixed up at the middle and upper ferries on Schuylkill; at Seybert's Tavern, in Second street, Northern Liberties; at Ogdens tavern in Chesnut street, and at the coffee house.

The convenience of stone so near the premises will prove very advantageous to purchasers.

CONNELLY & Co. auct'rs.

Postponement.

☞ The uncommon severity of the weather having prevented many persons from viewing the lots above described, the sale is postponed until Saturday the 20th April next, when it will be held on the premises, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The terms will be cash for those lots which are 50 feet, and 49 and an half feet front, and for those of a larger size, one half the cash to be paid down and the other half in six months from the day of sale.

march 20

TAKE NOTICE,

THAT I am to be sold on such terms, that the purchaser need not advance any cash, unless he pleases, till it is earned by my services, provided no accident happens me; or, if you please, I am to be farmed out for two years, and not less. I am a bright bay, full 15½ hands high, of noble descent, my name is TRIMMER—I was got by Hall's imported horse Eclipse, my dam, purchased by Doctor Hall, was got by the imported horse Slim; my grand dam was got by Old Figure; my great grand dam by Taskers Othello out of Selima, &c. &c. as will more fully appear by William Lyle's attested certificate who raised me. My character as a racer is well established; I won the colt's purse at Bladensburg of twenty guineas; I won a fifty guinea purse at Baltimore, a fifty guinea purse at Annapolis and a fifty guinea purse at Hagerstown. I never lost a race but the last I run at Alexandria, which was owning to my being badly shod, as I lost all my plates before I got in. I am in fine plight, found in every respect; my offspring are in great repute, some of which are now in training for the turf—procure me good stands and entertainment and I am able to earn one thousand dollars per annum.

Any person inclining to buy or rent may know the terms by applying to John Carnan (Lovehall) Cœcil county and state of Maryland, eight miles south of Elkton.

The Ration to be supplied, is to consist of the following articles, viz. Eighteen ounces of bread or flour, or when neither can be obtained, of one quart of rice, or one and a half pound of sifted or boulted indian meal, one pound and a quarter of fresh beef, or one pound of salted beef, or three quarters of a pound of salted Pork, and when fresh meat is issued, salt, at the rate of two quarts for every hundred rations, soap at the rate of four pounds, and candles at the rate of a pound and a half for every hundred rations.

It is expected the proposals will also extend to the supply of rum, whiskey, or other ardent spirits at the rate of half a gill per ration, and Vinegar at the rate of two quarts for every hundred rations. The proposals will specify the price of the several component parts of the ration, as well as those of substitutes or alternatives for parts thereof.

The rations are to be furnished in such quantities as that there shall at all times, during the term of the proposed contracts, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit Niagara and Oswego, for six months in advances, and at each of the other posts on the western waters, for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commandants of fortified places, or posts, to call for at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency, such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper. It is to be understood that the contractor is to be at the expence and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses, sustained, by the depredations of an enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid for at the price of the article captured or destroyed, on the depositions of two or more persons of creditable characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, ascertaining the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles, for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is to be understood to be reserved to the United States of requiring, that none of the supplies which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts shall be issued, until the supplies which have or may be furnished under contracts now in force have been consumed, and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the Sea-board or Indian frontiers not exceeding three months.

PHILADELPHIA,

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 30.

STATE-ISLAND,

26th March, 1799.

THE captain and passengers of the ship Thomas Wilson, think themselves under infinite obligations to Major Jackson, for his kind visit and assiduous report of several of the crew dying on the passage, and the rest in a very sickly state: which we declare to be false; and to satisfy the minds of the inhabitants of Philadelphia, do certify, that the entire cargo now on board has been landed, and lay four months in a magazine at Kingston since the last man died on board; and during the present voyage there has not been a sick man on board, except the captain, whose illness the physicians declare to be a relapse from cold, and is now perfectly recovered.

Thomas A. Jones,
Thomas Williams,
W. Brown,
J. H. Bailey,
R. J. Gruvelle.

MR. BROWN,

In refutation of the preceding false and indecent statement, by the captain and passengers of the ship Thomas Wilson, which appeared in your paper of last evening, you are desired to publish the following facts. W. JACKSON.

Philadelphia, March 29, 1799.

On the afternoon of Friday last, major Jackson, surveyor of the port, in company with captains Roach and Ashmead, two of the inspectors, went on board the ship Thomas Wilson, then at anchor in the river Delaware, about three miles above Chester.

Immediately on entering the vessel they were all affected by a very offensive smell which appeared to proceed from between decks.

Enquiring after the health of the people on board, John Hoover and Philip Tear, two of the barge's crew, were informed by the pilot and the people of the ship, that several persons who belonged to her when she sailed from Philadelphia had died—and the pilot told John Hoover, that all the crew had died excepting the man who stood in the waist of the ship.

When major Jackson and captains Roach and Ashmead entered the round house they found the captain sick, with his head bound up; on being asked what ailed him, the captain answered that he had been ill of a bad fever in Jamaica, and had a relapse on the passage.

Alarmed at such evidence of some malignant disorder being on board, the surveyor and inspectors left the ship—The pilot declaring to captain Roach that he would not bring her up until she had been visited by the physician.

As the custom-house barge did not reach the city until 11 o'clock at night, the surveyor could not report the ship at the health office until Saturday morning, when, to his astonishment, he perceived her anchored abreast of the city, she having come up without being visited—and the captain and passengers were on shore.

Information being given at the health office, the resident physician, Dr. Hall, went on board in the custom-house boat, and, on his report, and the opinions of Dr. Duffield, consulting physician, and Mr. Allen, the health-officer, who also went on board, the ship was ordered to be immediately taken down the river to perform quarantine—and the captain and passengers, as appears from the date of their publication, have been sent to the hospital.

We declare the foregoing facts to be truly stated.

William Jackson,
Isaac Roach,
Benjamin Ashmead,
John Hoover,
Philip Tear.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 29th day of March, 1799.

I do further declare, that when Doctor Hall returned from visiting the ship, he stated expressly to me, "that it was very improper she should have come up"—and he afterwards told me, that the Captain informed him that his first attack of the fever had been while he was at Petit Guave, that he had been again attacked in Jamaica—and that he had relapsed at sea. Dr. Hall added to me, that is was the yellow fever of which the Captain was sick. And yet these gentry have offered their certificate, "to satisfy the minds of the inhabitants of Philadelphia!" a certificate, which, as far as it was intended to imply any misrepresentation on my part I again state to be scandalously false and indecent. W. JACKSON.

It is due to Messrs. Reed and Ford, the owners of the ship Thomas Wilson, to say, that they have disavowed any knowledge of the publication by the captain and passengers.

We regret that the assault which was made on the Editor of this paper yesterday, by one of the United Irishmen, prevented us from annexing the remarks, which we intended, to the publication, signed by the captain and four passengers of the ship Thomas Wilson, which, as we then conceived, very illiberally reflected on Major Jackson, for his official visit on board of that ship, and, as we are since assured, was as untrue as it was indecent. We are too well assured of that gentleman's adherance to truth, to believe him capable of any mistatement; but the fact is, that the vessel was ordered to perform quarantine, after an inspection by the physician of the port. Major Jackson's information only went to state what the master of the vessel had himself declared, that he had been attacked by a bad fever in Jamaica, of which he had had a relapse at sea. The information respecting the deaths on board was given to the people of the Custom house boat, and was reported by them.

We confess our obligations, in common with our fellow-citizens, to Major Jackson, for whatever influence his opinions may have had, in procuring the ship Thomas Wilson, together with her captain and passengers, (who, contrary to law, had landed without being visited by the Port Physician) to be remanded to perform quarantine. P. G.

Our Tars Rewarded!!!

The Editors of the United Irish Gazette, are daily charging the gallant Truxton, and his brave officers and crew, with premeditated murder, in return for their noble conduct in the capture of a piratical cruizer, which had committed innumerable hostilities on our commerce.——In what other country would such conduct be suffered?

ANECDOTE.

On the 10th of August 1778, Count D'Estaing, with his fleet passed before the British batteries at Newport, and there was a brisk cannon on both sides. Many of the shot struck in the town and the inhabitants were in great consternation. A shot entered the door of the house of Mrs. Mason, a widow lady, a little above the floor. As the family were passing from room to room, not knowing where the next shot might strike, young Mr. Mason passing through the entry, found a negro sitting with his back against the shot-hole in the door; on being asked why he sat there, he answered, "Master, you never know two shot to go in the same place." Under this idea he was tranquil.

LAW REPORTS.

ATTORNEYS.

Mr. Wood moved the Court for a rule to shew cause why an Attorney, whom he did not name, should not be struck off the roll, or answer the matters of the affidavit. The circumstances of this case was shortly these. The servant of a grocer in the country having received some bodily injury while in his master's service, applied to a surgeon, who soon cured him; for which he brought in a small bill of 16s. 6d. which the servant's master refused to pay. The surgeon sued him in a Court Baron, and the attorney, against whom this application was made, was employed by the grocer to defend the action. Before the day of trial, the attorney, together with his client, called upon a woman who was to give evidence for the plaintiff, and asked her what she would swear on the trial. She told him she would swear she heard the defendant promise to pay the surgeon. They asked her if she did not recollect that the defendant only said HE WOULD SEE HIM PAID, but that would not do, and after several unsuccessful attempts to make this woman commit perjury, they at length prevailed on her not to attend the trial.—The attorney gave her a guinea, and his client half a guinea. The Steward, in consequence of her absence, postponed the trial of the cause, on the plaintiff's paying the costs of the day, and this attorney, who had bribed this woman to keep out of the way, had the audacity to oppose putting off the trial to a future day. The steward, however, put it off on paying the costs.

Lork Kenyon—"Take a rule to shew why this attorney should not answer the matters of the affidavit. Is the defendant a man of property? We cannot get at him by the summary process of the court."

Mr. Justice Gross—"I am glad this motion has been made. These applications, endeavoring to find out what adverse witnesses have to say, have grown to a most enormous evil."—Rule to shew cause granted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

It is ſubmitted to the citizens of Philadelphia, whether the outrage lately committed, does not point out the neceſſity of ſome immediate meaſures for the protection of our perſons, from the abuſe and influence of the banditti with which our city is infeſted.—The patriotic citizens who march to Northampton, look for the ſafety of their parents, wives and children at the hand of thoſe who remain behind.

It is not ſaid that Alexander James Dallas, privy counſellor of the Governor, will be appointed paymaster to the army in this march againſt inſurrection.—The Governor's co-operation is not yet requeſted.

What will the citizens of Philadelphia yet ſuffer ere they rouſe from their lethargy to a ſenſe of the danger which threatens them? Their Temples of worſhip are profaned; their fellow citizens threatened, beaten, aſſaſſinated; even their houſes, which the law profeſſes to hold ſacred, afford them no protection. And by whom are theſe enormities committed? For ſhame Philadelphians! Be not thus awed by a handful of foreign renegadoes. Apprehend them, and let them be ſubjected to the penalties of the law.

One of the fellows who made the aſſault on the Editor of the Philadelphia Gazette, has been diſcovered; and proves to be no leſs a character than the pilfering fabricator of Gazeteers, &c—the ſame whom Dr. Morſe detected in an attempt to palm on the public, as the fruits of his own labor and ingenuity, the ſcientific reſearches of another man!

A citizen propoſes that, in the event of the volunteer corps being ordered to quell the inſurrection at Northampton, an armed aſſociation ſhould be immediately formed to protect the city againſt the United Iriſhmen and other freebooters, who are ſtill tolerated among us.

The late extraordinary attack upon Mr. Brown, is an occurrence which ought to bring our citizens to reflect upon their real ſituation. It is an occurrence which muſt prove beyond a doubt, if proof be ſtill neceſſary, that there exiſts in the midſt of us, a combination of men, linked together by the moſt flagitious principles, and in purſuit of the vileſt and moſt abandoned purpoſes. Though the proofs which have already been preſented to us, are amply ſufficient to render this manifeſt, they appear to have been ſtrangely diſregarded by thoſe whoſe intereſts are moſt nearly concerned in the diſcovery. One would imagine that the ſcenes which Ireland, within a twelvemonth paſt, has exhibited, in conſequence of the principles and practices of the United Iriſhmen, would chill with horror our citizens, when they know that within the boſom of their country are contained many of the perſons who have been agents, diſtinguiſhed agents too, in theſe dreadful tranſactions. If barely a view of theſe ſcenes is calculated to excite ſuch ſentiments, what muſt be our feelings when we ſee them actually begun to be put in practice among us?—When we ſee theſe very perſons openly violating our laws; when, in defiance of the principles of order and morality, we ſee them profaning the Sabbath with violence and outrage, and at laſt, inflicting a moſt atrocious injury upon one of our fellow-citizens, is it not time for us to be alarmed, and to be upon our guard againſt their future operations?—Will any one have the folly to imagine that an United Iriſhman, by quitting his country, forſakes the deteſtable principles he has there put in practice? If any one ſhould think ſo, let him look, not barely upon the general tenor of their conduct, but upon the open avowal they have made of their undeviating adherence to them. Let him look over the toaſts they have drank upon St. Patrick's day, and he will ſee that the reſiſtance they have met with, and the victory that has been obtained over them on the theatre where they firſt commenced the exhibition of thoſe principles, has only ſerved to rivet them more cloſely in their hearts;—their diſappointment has only ſerved to give them additional aſperity and rancour. If then, as appears from their late conduct, they are only waiting for opportunities to practice upon thoſe principles in this country, what is our ſecurity that we ſhall not here have a counterpart of what has been paſſing in Ireland?—With the poſſibility of ſuch a moſt direful event hanging over us, is it not right that the people ſhould be alarmed? is it not the duty of every one to point out to them their danger? If, after having it ſhewn to them, they will take no meaſures to guard againſt it, but will ſtill continue to go on in the ſame ſtupid ſecurity they have hitherto manifeſted, they muſt themſelves be reſponſible for the conſequences that may enſue. As their's has been the indifference and inattention, ſo muſt alſo the ſuffering be their's.

A letter was yeſterday morning received from Northampton, ſtating, that on Monday laſt, Mr. Balliot, one of the collectors of the revenue, was attacked on his return from Bethlehem and ſeverely beaten, ſo as to make it neceſſary to ſend to Bethlehem for a phyſician. The letter does not give particulars, but it was ſuppoſed that this outrage was committed by ſome of the inſurgents.

We alſo learn, that a company of Light Infantry met at Lower Socken on Monday laſt, but the object of the meeting was not known to our informant.

A meeting of another body of men was to be held at Milford, but for what purpoſe we could not learn.

From the beſt information we can obtain on the ſubject, it is probable the march of the troops from this city for Northampton, will take place about Wedneſday next.—Various detachments of regular troops are a ready on their march thither; theſe it is ſuppoſed, will from a body of about five hundred men. *(A. The Conſtitutional Gazette;

AND

Republican Courier.

The Subſcriber reſpectfully offers to the Public, propoſals for a Newſpaper, under the title of the Conſtitutional Gazette; and Republican Courier.

IT is intended to be publiſhed three times a week in the city of Philadelphia; viz. on every Monday, Wedneſday and Friday evening. The ſubſcription will be five dollars per annum, half to be paid by ſubſcribers in the city when called for. The difficulty of collecting ſmall ſums in the country, renders it neceſſary to aſk the ſubſcription, out of the city, to be paid in advance, or the name of a perſon in Philadelphia who will pay them regularly.

Although the propoſed Newſpaper will be of a ſmaller ſize than the unhandy ſheets now generally in uſe, it will contain as much as the generality of the daily Gazettes. It is expected that a very ſmall portion of it will be occupied by advertiſements, which will occaſion an unuſual quantity of intelligence and information. It will be publiſhed in the quarto form, and regularly paged, to render it convenient for binding in volumes, to each of which an index will be attempted.

The principles intended to be ſupported, are thoſe of the Federal and State Conſtitutions. The friends of the tranquility, peace and happineſs of this country, may rely on a calm, decent and firm adherence to thoſe valuable Republican codes. The Editor is unwilling to make large promiſes, but he aſſures his friends and the public, that he has ground to rely on important literary and political contributions from various ſources. Without ſuch an expectation, he would not have undertaken, at this time, to publiſh a new Gazette. He believes the Preſs to be the nobleſt inſtrument in the command of Freemen, and he flatters himſelf that The Conſtitutional Gazette will not be found among the moſt exceptionable, nor among the leaſt uſeful

Subſcriptions are received by the different bookſellers, and at the ſubſcriber's office, No. 90, South Third ſtreet, at which place the Weekly Magazine continues to be publiſhed.
